Endless Pleasures

Beginning

Timeless Treasures

Ah.h..h.. a new year. . . another awesome beginning of high school life. . .a chance to see new or old students missed during the summer. This will be another year of new goals that sometimes are made, and sometimes not. Right? Who are we kidding?! The beginning of school must be every teenagers #1 fear. The fear of whether or not we look good, whether we're going to make it to our next class, and the big question is, "Why do we even have to be here???" Well, we all know that school prepares us for college as well as our future. We've all been through the wonderful aspects of high school. For instance, D-hall on Staurday mornings, exams every nine-weeks, and those marvellous white slips of paper with the letters that spell Report Card are just a few. But there are three things we've all learned to love about school — weekends, holidays, and SUMMER!

Class of

Seniors

Ninety-one

Twelve years ago we started our first day of school,
Holding hands together and learning the Golden Rule.

We laughed and played all through these first six years.
We had our first best friends and we had our first fears.

We didn't realize what we had begun, we didn't know that we would one day be, the class of '91.

It was our first day of Jr. High School,
We were all afraid we wouldn't be cool.

We had our first puppy loves and our parents almost cried,
But they soon recovered because that nonsense soon died.

We still didn't know that we would one day be the class of '91.

It was the big finale
our senior year,
We thought it was great, but didn't know the end was so near.

We thought back to twelve years ago when we all started off sitting on the same row.
We look around now at all of those seats
We see our friends and wonder if they'll take that college leap.
Questions are running through our minds
Will we see them again? Will we ever find the time?

It's graduation night, we know,
And we're all still sitting on those same rows.

We're all so grateful for the friends that last,
But we didn't know it would go by so fast!

We didn't realize what we had begun,
But we now know that we are the Great Class of '91!

Pleasure

Juniors

Seekers

The phenomenal in-between. A time when when students are over being a sophomore but not quite old enough to be a senior. Most juniors enjoyed open campus lunch since they were cooped up (or caged) at the Annex during their sophomore year. Juniors found out they needed to put forth their best effort as the academic classes proved to be the hardest yet.

Some of the wonderful aspects of the school year were the thought of not having to ride the "cheesewagon" back and forth from one campus to another, since nearly all were assigned to the main campus. Also, this year brought about the purchase of the class ring, a symbol of twelve years of academic sweat. However, when most juniors were asked what they thought was the nicest thing about being a junior, they said, BEING A SENIOR NEXT YEAR!!

Business Before

Sophomores

Pleasure

"Finally. . .we're in HIGH SCHOOL!!!" This statement was evident in the joy that surrounds a sophomores first day in high school. Sophomores have waited for this event most of their lives. However, most found that it wasn't as great as they expected.

The downfalls of being a sophomore were numerous. They included the wonderful free transportation of the "cheesewagon" (also known as the shuttle bus), that was to take the annex students from one campus to another, and the closed campus for lunch. Many sophomores didn't let a few inconviences get them down as they were more excited about the new adventures of making new friends from the other junior highs in the school district.

Treasures of Teachers

Knowledge

Every year it is like a new beginning for teachers because they have to get used to a brand new routine, new faces, and lots of late night grading. It may not seem like dedicated teachers are important, but without them students would have a difficult time getting a good education.

Sometimes teachers feel like "pulling their hair out" because of students that give them a hard time about their assigments or students that just just don't care about learning. It's also difficult to teach students who learn at different paces. Teachers as well as students have to have patience so that everyone has a positive learning experience.

Students should take time to consider all the hard work and effort that is involved with teaching. As the old cliche' goes, "Teaching is the profession that makes all other professions possible." P.H.S. students are lucky to have exceptional teachers that will make all our tomorrows brighter because of the knowledge that they share with us today.

Life's little

Student Life

Pleasures

Everyday the same routine mastered in the minds of hundreds of students kicked into gear for a hard day of work at school. As soon as the morning bell rang, the day began and the students slowly scattered from their groups to go to class so that they could hopefully learn something.

After three classes of back to back learning, the students got a thrity minute break for lunch. While at lunch, they talked about their weekend plans and prepared for the last three classes of the day.

When the last bell of the day finally rang, all that was heard was laughter and cheer as the students left campus to go home. The campus once again was quiet and lonely until the sun rose the next morning when the students returned to school to capture the same routine as the day before.

Timeless

Class

Treasures

For many years students have put up with the anxiety, distress, and misery of school life. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors woke up everyday dreading the few hours at school. They went to school through rain, and every other disaster nature could come up with. Although these trials and tribulations seem horrid, in the end these students were glad to be a part of P.H.S. Through the years the student body has made new friendships, achievments, and goals. When these students look upon past years, they will always remember instead of being a body of almost 2,000 students, they were the unity of P.H.S.

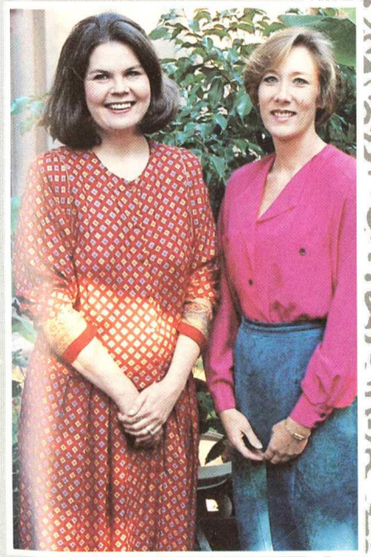
Senior class officers
rule the school



It was hard being a at the top, but with these officers in charge, being a senior was a snap! The first challenge our energetic officers undertook came in October with the senior class display for homecoming. Under the direciton of our dedicated sponsors, we took the lead by winning the first place ribbon with the theme of "You Ain't Nothing but a Hound dog." In November the senior officer busied themselves with the election of the class song, Tomorrow and the class motto, colors, and flower. In the spring of the year, emphasis was directed to the ever-popular (and ever-messy) Almost Anything Goes. The annual volleyball tournament on the beach was also a blazing success. Because of the enthusiasm of the senior class officers, the class of 1991's final year will always be remembered as a busy and fun one.

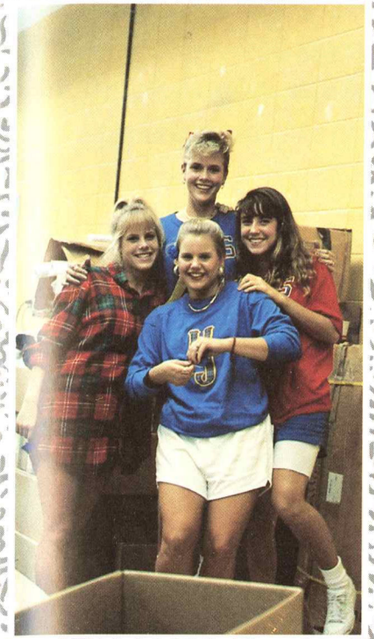
P.H.S. Express is short-lived. . .but spirited

With the arrival of the 1990 school year, a new group of seniors overran the P.H.S. Express. These guys were the most spirited group that old van had ever seen. With more energy and force than before, they rocked the student section until they were wild with excitement. They revved up school spirit to new extremes with their wild music, graceful dances, and crazy antics. Everyone loved the guys who made football season so much fun. The P.H.S. Express was appreciated! This year's P.H.S. Express members included Richard "Hairy" Patrick, Jimbo "J.B." Ethridge, Erik "Yuppie" Armstrong, Jeff "Jethro" Foil, Dusty "Coda" Scott, Robbie "Rob" Savell, Brian "Two Can" Holbert, and Kirk "Slug" Simm.



Endless Friendship

Because one's high school years are such times of change, many of the experiences we shared with out closest friends were unique and irreplaceable. We will always have innumerable memories of spirited, wild Friday nights during football season , and the sunny days spent with our friends at the islands and other favorite places.

The truth of the matter is, many members of the class of '91 will go their separate ways after graduation. For many, these memories will be the only thing to bind them together. The friends made in high school will be the most unique group of friends they will ever have. Because it is important to maintain such friendships, each class member should make a special effort to attend all class reunions.

To the best. . .

The honor and distinction graduates of the class of '91 are given the honor of being The best of the best because earning such a title is highly commendable. These graduates put forth an extraordinary amount of effort during all four years of high school, and now that effort will pay off by college scholarships and career opportunities. Congratulations to the honor and distinction graduates of 1991.

Seniors Robin Sanford and Kerrie Norris work hard to insure their ranking at the top of the class.

This years junior officers worked hard to accomplish their goals for the year. The new 1990-1991 officers included Kirk Kinard, Ginny Blazick, Kerri Killingsworth, Nancy White, and Julie Bird. They started the year off right by deciding on an idea for the junior class homecoming float and supervising the work. There was a large turnout to work on the float this year. The officers showed their class spirit by dressing up every day of homecoming week and for Moss Point week. For their fundraiser the junior officers decided to sell M and M's. The final project was helping with the junior/senior prom. This was their most time consuming event and as usual it was a success. Junior officers worked hard and did a great job!

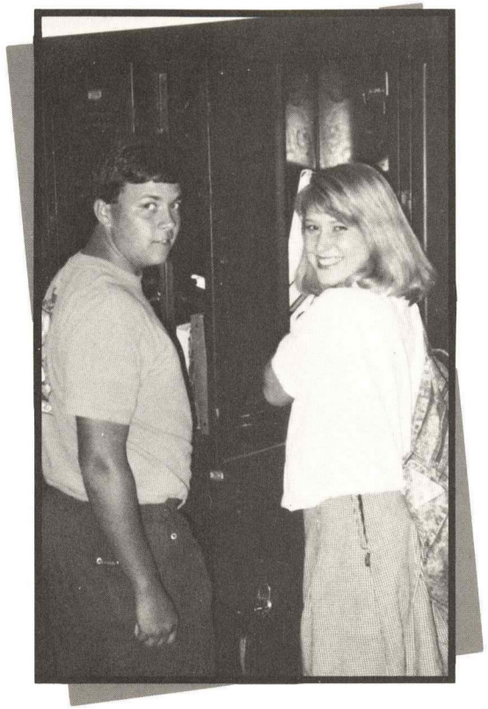
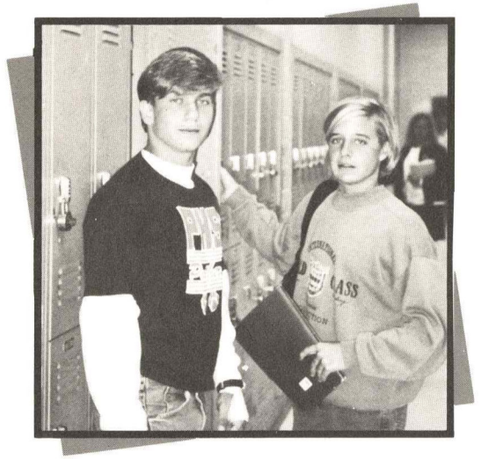
Juniors
Where do they fit in?





Juniors fondly remembered their sophomore year. They were at a new school making new friends. All of a sudden they were thrust into the big world of high school. Most everyone was scared, but they had fun being scared. It was exciting not knowing who their teachers were going to be and what new faces would appear from the "other" junior highs. At the annex everyone was the same age, and that made the transition easier. They definately knew what was expected of them. Not much since they were only sophomores.

Now here they are. . .stuck in the middle of a another year before they can claim the high stature of "senior." Not yet do they get to order their caps and gowns, have numerous senior pictures made, or send off college applications. They can hardly wait to work on the senior float and have one of their own crowned homecoming queen. But for a little while it looks like Juniors are playing the waiting game, biding their time while they take their PSAT's and FLE's, preparing for their ACT's amd SAT's. But maybe this group of teenagers shouldn't spend their time reminiscing about the past year or preparing for the next. They are not the new kids any more and no one has to worry with senior hassles. Isn't this supposed to be the time of their lives? Relax juniors, and enjoy it.

Weekend blues
Where to go and what to do

It's Friday night. The football game is in the final few seconds of the fourth quarter. The crowd is going wild. The anticipation of who will win is unbearable. The siren finally sounds and the game is over. What is there to do now? Where's the party? Who will be out and where will they be? These are just some of the many questions that go through a student's mind on Friday and Saturday nights. After a hard week of school, students are ready for a little fun and excitement. Several PHS students were asked where they liked to go on weekends and some of their crazy responses follow: April Busby says she likes to go out with all her friends. Timmy Kell says he likes to go to the movies. Heather Thompson likes going to the mall. Eric Tompkins likes hanging out at I. G. Levy.Kerri Killingsworth likes to go to parties to see every one.Eric Peifer goes to Mobile or Biloxi. Michelle Littleton likes hanging out at the East End or going to a party. Kirk Kinard likes just getting out of the house. Most people agree that if you take them to where the party is, they will be content. So if a weekend comes along and theres no where to go, check out one of these places and you may be surprised at who you see.

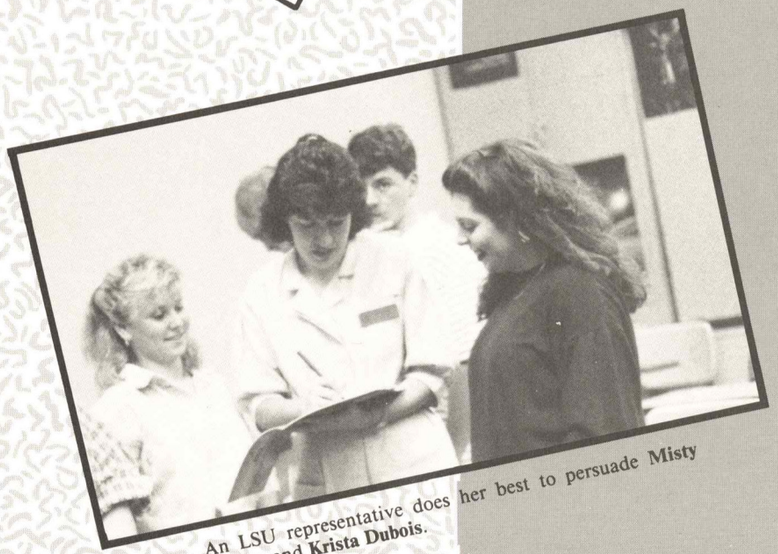
COLLEGE NIGHT



An LSU representative does her best to persuade Misty Teague and Krista Dubois.

Many students were intrigued with the USM display.

On Tuesday, November 27, Pascagoula High School held their annual "College Night" program. More than thirty colleges and Universities were represented from all over the Southeast. These ranged from West Point to LSU, and from University of Dallas to Duke. Students and their parents were given the opportunity to ask questions about extra-curriculur activities, available majors, and financial aid. Most schools provided information on post-graduate employment and even starting salaries. This was a great help to students who were debating between schools and for those who did not know where to start. One of our counselors, Mr. Danny James, organized and conducted the event. "We had good participation and plan to repeat the program next year." Mr. James stated. Some of the colleges represented were Alabama State, Mississippi State, University of South Alabama, Livingston, Duke University, Delta state, Alcorn State, University of Southern Mississippi,Louisiana State University, Loyola University, Stillman College, Mobile College, University of Mississippi and all branches of the military. Hopefully we will be as successful in the future.

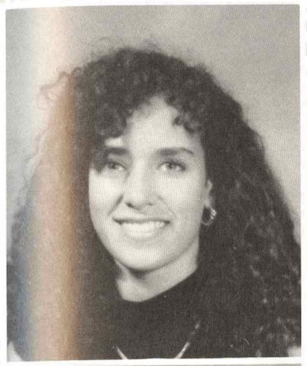
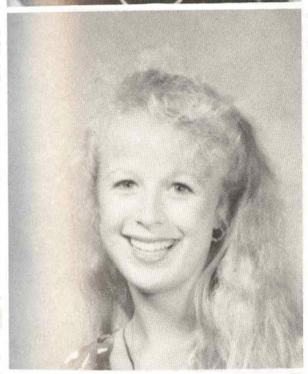
Extraordinary Sophomores

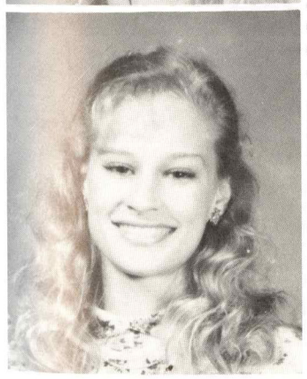
Among the many outstanding sophomores, three sophomores were cited as being extraordinary. They have excelled in academics as well as extra curriculer activities.These students are Gina Dunnam, Christy Sutherland, and Enders Groff.



Gina Dunnam has been an extremely outstanding sophmore at Pascagoula High School. She was vice-president of the sophmore class and a member of the student council. Gina was also a member of the cross country and the president of the FCA. Gina has continuously been on the honor roll and participates in the PHS Band.



Christy Sutherland was another outstanding sophmore at Pascagoula High School. She has won several journalism, physical education, and academic awards in the past years. She was active in the Student Council, Beta Club, Key Club, and the varsity softball team.



Enders Groff has been an outstanding sophmore at Pascagoula high School. She was involved in the Beta Club, Teen Connection,and Ideas. Enders is also involved in the Melange Dance Company, and she has performed in Washington, D.C.

Sophomores get a kick out of football

Football is an exciting sport played by high school, college, and professional teams. Every fall, sophmores look forward to their school challenging other local schools in the sport of football. A variety of answers were given from sophmores at P.H.S. on why they attend football games. Most students response was they attend in order to meet new aquaintances. Football games give students an opportunity to meet students from other schools. Some sophmores attend football games to participate in the activities and exitement. In conclusion, football is a sport which is enjoyed by many strdents at P.H.S. Whether on the fields or in the stands, football is a major activity for sophmores.

FACULTY

Pleasures

On Pascagoula High School's three campuses a total of 142 teachers, secretaries, principals, and vice-principals preside. Through the years many have found that some of the great people of the coast seem to be right in our high school. Some people don't seem to realize the importance of the faculty surrounding us everyday. They provide the education of tomorrow's adults, parents, and leaders. Best of all, the P.H.S. faculty has always had great PANTHER SPIRIT. They are always there to lend a hand, give advice to students and give up their extra time to help P.H.S. to be the best high school in the U.S.A.

Mrs. Watts retires after forty years of service

For the past four decades the Pascagoula School System has enjoyed a very special lady and friend of students. As a teacher, she upholds the philosophy that, "All children can learn." As a counselor she has helped hundreds of students make important decisions,school related as well as personal.

Mrs. Vivian Watts was born in Pascagoula and has lived here all here life. She comes from a rather large family, one of five girls. She was very fond of her mother and claims her to be the greatest influence through out her life.

Mrs. Watts is a college graduate with two degrees. She first attended Tuskegee University where she majored in Pre-Medicine. From there she was accepted to Medical School in Tennessee. She taught for a year hoping to earn money for medical school. She never returned, instead she changed her major and attended the University of Southern Mississippi where she earned two degrees, a Masters in Mathmatics, and a Masters in Guidence.

After completing college, Mrs. Watts started her full time teaching career. She taught at Colmer Junior High for fifteen years. In 1966 the position for Guidence Counselor became available. She was accepted for the job and has been at Pascagoula High School for twenty-five years. After forty years of service Mrs. Watts feels that it is now time to retire.

Mrs. Vivian Watts is truly a remarkable lady and says that, "Education has been her whole life." She advises students to work hard and study because, "Education is the single most important thing in one's life." On behalf of the Yearbook Staff and the students of PHS, we would like to thank Mrs. Watts for all that she has given to her school and students over the past forty years.

CLUBS

Unity

Quick! Think about Clubs- what comes to mind? Friendship? Diversity? Conformity? Unity?

There is no single adjective to describe every club. Whether your views of clubs is positive, negative, or have no opinion, there is no doubt that the clubs of Pascagoula High are alive and kicking.

During the 1990-91 school year clubs were known for their assistance to many functions. They also enjoyed the excitement of after school activities.

These clubs are eager to sell anything for a fundraiser, but everyone knows the #1 product is definately "M&M's"!

The 1990-91 Beta Club members try to discourage students to not drink and drive by participating in a "Ghost Out" day.

Ebony Blanche makes efforts to gather toys for children who are less fortunate.

Key Club has Panther Spirit in the 1990 Homecoming Parade.

Krista Carey helps decorate the school Christmas tree with lights as an annual project of Junior Civitan.

Mike Carpenter is inducted into National Honor Society by the officers of the club.

Student Council is on top

This year, as always, the student council has been very involved. Each member was very dedicated and hard working because they all want the student council to be the best as it can and will be.

The main purposes of student council was to promote citizenship and leadership and to give students an opportunity to have a voice in the operation of their school. The council sponsored many activities all throughout the school year that gave the students a variety of activities that interested them.

Some of the activities they sponsored this year were: all spirit days, workers during registration, and a fall and spring blood drive. They organized the homecoming parade, elections, and court presentations. Also, they sponsored Moss Point Week door competition. The student council also made the yellow ribbons for the troops in the Middle East.

The P.H.S. Beta Club had another very successful year in displaying the leadership abilities and service to others for which it is so famous. The 1990-1991 year was started off with the induction of new members. An induction ceremony was held and the guest speaker was Supreme Court Judge-Elect Chuck Mc Rae. During Homecoming Beta Club sponsored a float in the annual parade. The major project of the year was the Blind project which was a combined effort between the Beta Club and the Pascagoula Evening Lions Club. In February, members attended state convention in Biloxi. At the convention Julie Bird ran for a state office. Through the excellent sponsors, officiers and members Beta Club had another wonderful year.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Encourages students to become more involved

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes (F.C.A.) is most admired by the student body of P.H.S. It is a club that worked together to promote a positive attitude in everything they did.

This year F.C.A. had some guest speakers come in and talk during the meetings held before school. Two of these speakers were Murphy Young and Frank Gunn.

The club sponsored a High Attendance day on January 23, 1991.

They attended the state convention held in Jackson, MS on May second and third.

The more work the club did the closer everyone would get to each other. That is what makes F.C.A. such an admirable club.

IDEAS

A Step Ahead

The Ideas club at Pascagoula High School really seemed interested in taking field trips this school year. They took three of their trips to New Orleans. On the first trip the group went to see Fiddler On The Roof. The next field trip was to visit the Aquarium of the America's. Another trip to New Orleans was to see the broadway musical Cats. This time instead of going to New Orleans, the group went to Montgomery, Alabama to see the American Shakespeare Festival.

The club holds their meetings only when it is necessary. They meet every Wednesday for the entire school day to do fun activities.

Other than just going places, the club had a fund raiser. The group sold M&M candies to raise some money so that they could go and do the things they wanted to.

At Christmas time the group got together and collected some cans for a Food Basket to donate to the Salvation Army.

This club did a lot of fun activities during the year, hopefully next year they will be even more active. Thanks to Mrs. Davis this club really had a fun year.

The Jazz Band

This year, the Jazz Band sponsored by Mr. Jerry Ball was very excited about their events for the year.

They usually spend the first semester preparing for concert performances. Jazz and pop vocal tunes are learned which provide an opportunity for each student to improvise and use the information and skills they have learned. A lot of preparation goes into putting an exciting performance together.

After a lot of rehearsals, concerts are scheduled at all of the schools in the Pascagoula School District. The Jazz Band enjoys the experiences of playing for exciting audiences and looks forward to all their concerts.

The Ebony-Blanche Club
Encourages Involvement

This year there is another new club. This one is the Ebony-Blanche Club. This is a club for black high-school students. They have a good number of members and have already made a good name for themselves in the community.

So far, the club has visited the Gulf Coast Nursing Home during Thanksgiving. They also delivered fruit baskets to them too. Near Christmas, they started collecting food and clothes for the battered women's shelter. They were very successful at that.

In all, they collected two large boxes of clothes, and food. The group went together to deliver them.

On January 21, 1991, they participated in the Dr.

Martin Luther King Parade. The club also decorated the February bulletin board in honor of black history month. Lastly, they participated in Pascagoula Public Library's Black History Program.

For a new club just starting out, Ebony-Blanche has really made a good name for themselves. Thanks to Mr. Spillers and Mr. Sanders this club really did become the best it could.

Key Club

Provides community service for the public

The Key Club has completed many community services for the public again this year. The Key Club is a community service club represented by the Kiwanis Club. The Kiwanis Club participated in many of the Key Club activities.

The Key Club has helped the community in many ways during the school year. One of the things they did this year was have a beach clean up. The group got together and did all they could to clean up the Pascagoula Beach. Another thing they did was collect can goods for the Thanksgiving basket. Each member was required to bring three cans. The next thing was a few members volunteered to ring the bell at Wal-Mart one Saturday morning for the Salvation Army. During Homecoming Week, Key Club submitted a float for the Homecoming parade.

This year, Mr. Walker did a great job. Hopefully next year the dedication and hard work will increase even more.

D.E.C.A.
Promotes Leadership

This year the Distributive Education Club did a lot to be the best it could be. The club promotes leadership and helps build marketing skills.

D.E.C.A. started off the year by going to a District Competition in Biloxi during November. The club had plans on going to Orlando, but they just didn't make the deadlines. In Ferbruary they attended a competition at Jackson County Community College. They also attended the state competition in Jackson amd after that a National Competition in Denver, CO.

They entered a flat-bed float in the homecoming parade and won first place.

The club had a fund raiser at the end of November and sold candies and chocolates. They made a good profit off this fundraiser.

D.E.C.A. is a really prosperous club and it really prepares you for the future. If you are interested in marketing and markeking skills this club would be very rewarding for your future.

V.I.C.A.
Improves Skills

This year VICA has really made some improvements. The group has become a lot more active in doing community service and the members are really dedicated.

Some of the tasks the club accomplished through the school year were going to competitions, participating in more events, and having successful fund-raisers. The club started off the year with getting a food basket together and delivered it to the Bay Towers Apartments for the elderly. During Thanksgiving and Christmas they sponsored a couple more food drives for the needy and for the Salvation Army. The most rewarding thing the club did was to get the entire school involved in collecting Kool-Aid and gum for the troops in Saudi Arabia.

The club went to a District Competition in February in Poplarville, MS.

Thanks to Mr. Goldman, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Backs, and Mrs. Watts, this club has really taken a big leap forward.

Exceeds the Limits

Sponsor; Mrs. Suzanna Miller

This year the newspaper staff has turned over a new leaf. They have a new sponsor, Mrs. Suzanna Miller and she is doing an excellent job.

Another new item they added this year was the "Dear Dan", column in the school paper. It is for students to ask Daniel Holbert questions and get his advice. He was the journalist who created the article. It really was popular with the students.

Each year they print six copies of the paper. They distribute them every two months.

Judy Johnson came from the Mississippi Press to give the students a seminar on how things run when you deal with the newspaper.

Mrs. Miller has really put a lot into this club. and as much work as she has done, the paper definately shows it. Keep up the good work.

Yearbook Staff

Takes Pleasure In Work.

Pascagoula High School's Panther Staff went with the theme "Endless Pleasures, Timeless Treasures" this year as they diligently collected lifes most cherishable moments. They went to endless efforts to capture the best of P.H.S. for everyones treasure. The staff members tasks began as soon as the first day of school was in session. Becoming familiar with the job required of them, brainstorming for ideas for the theme and cover, and preparing for upcoming deadlines were only a few hurdles to overcome. However, through all moments of making deadlines, the Panther staff did a job that was great. They hope that this brings memories and pleasures to each and every student.

This year, one of the newest clubs was Teenage Republicans (TARS). Mrs. Lalonde was the sponsor and the person responsible for getting this club together.

First off, the club submitted a float in the Homeconing Parade. They passed out flyers for Shelia Smith. Also, at the Homecoming game a few of the members volunteered to pass out ribbons in honor of the troops in Saudi Arabia.

They have had two parties; one at the beginning of the year and another at Christmas time. The party for the new school year was held at Mr. Gattis. There they had a guest speaker, Mr. Curt Hebert. The Christmas party was held at Lela Longmires house.

Their meetings are held either at the Gautier or Pascagoula Public Library. They had meetings about once a month.

This club has definatly made a name for itself this year. Each member was very dedicated and very devoted to the club. Keep up the good work.

PHS Chorus is outstanding

The Pascagoula High School Chorus has had a another great year under the direction of Harvie B. Mc Clure. The chorus has had a very busy year. They began with a Fall concert in October at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in Gautier. During the Christmas season the choirs performed at the three junior high schools in the Pascagoula School District. In April,they traveled to Florida to perform at Disney World. Also, they performed a Spring concert in May. Along with the choirs spectacular concerts, they also performed at many elementary schools and before various civic groups. We congratulate the chorus for another excellent year.

Band proves practice makes perfect

The Pascagoula High School Band practiced many long and hard hours to achieve the goals they set for this school year. This included staying late after school, coming in early before school, and coming to extra practices on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

This year the band attended three competitions. The first one was the Gulf Coast Band Festival where they received all superiors. Also, they attended the Theodore Deep South Marching Contest where they won all superiors again. Along with all superiors, they received Best Band overall, Best Flag Corps overall, and lastly, Best Drumline overall. Finally, they went to the Milton Old South Festival where they received all superiors once again.

This went to prove that if a band has a lot of dedicated and supportive members who are willing to give one hundred percent of their time to band, they can make a superior band.

Band camp

The first glimpse of success

This summer, while most students were still asleep, the band had already been up and working for hours. This was the annual band camp held at Jones County Junior College for five days out of the hot summer. Band camp is the toughest week of the summer, but it definately pays off.

Each day began with marching exercises at 5:30 a.m. and the work ends at 8:00 p.m. There was a meeting each night with something fun planned for everybody. If anyone got frustrated during the day, this was the time they could unwind. Sunday night was the first night at camp and when people gave their band council election speeches. This is the seniors favorite night because they got to initiate the new sophomores. Other activities throughout the week included a womanless beauty pageant, skit and talents, a swimming party, and the traditional dance on the last night.

Band camp is the fist opportunity for the band members to meet each other. Instead of one hundred separate people, it began to be one single unit working together for the same goal. A strong pride began to form which enabled the band to believe how great they can and will be.

Pain And Sports Pleasure

"The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat" were the emotions of many Panther sports fans this year. Many fans, however, didn't realize the pain and dedication that these atheletes endured to gain the many victories that the fans enjoyed. The numerous afternoon practices spent for preparing for the big games seemed to pay off in the end as many athelets grew emotionally as well as physically.

Fall sports seemed to provide P.H.S. with various types of spirited activities such as the Friday night football and basketball games. Also, during the rest of the year, students attended softball, baseball and soccer games as well as tennis, golf, and cross country meets. Yes, Panther sports are a way of life in Pascagoula, and all Panther fans were thankful for the many thrills that each sport displayed this year.

This year school spirit at Pascagoula High School was boosted by some very talented and energetic students.This year's squad consists of eight seniors, seven juniors, and six sophomores. At each game, the cheerleaders boost the fan's and the player's spirits. It takes many hours of hard work and preparation to make them the best they can be. They not only practice during the school year; they also go to cheerleader camp in the summer. This year they went to the Louisiana State University campus for cheerleader camp. The cheerleaders couldn't do all they do without their wonderful sponsor, Mrs. Melinda Mitchell. She gets them ready for the games and helps them with everything they do. Like the cheerleaders, she has a very busy job. Also, she has been helped by two hard-working head cheerleaders. They are Jennifer Jones and Joanna Holland.

MORE THAN

MEETS THE EYE

A key word in describing "victory" for the 1990 football season at PHS was teamwork. The outcome of pulling together as a team and each person giving their time and talents was successful. Players endured aching muscles, torn ligaments and cartiliges, along with a few broken bones. They survived endless hours of drills in preparation for each game. Spring training, two-a-days, daily practices, and time spent learning plays and procedures taught mental and physical stratagies to players.

An excellent coaching staff assisted in the growth and success of the team. They worked one-on- one with players encouraging them and pushing them to go beyond the limit and to never settle for less. While working out in the weight room, each player had the opportunity to build and tone their bodies and to acheive their maximum potential. Players learned self-discipline and cooperation, they also developed a thirst for setting and achieving high goals in all areas of life.

Panther football was like the lifeblood of Pascagoula. It got everybody together and excited. Pride and spirit ran deep down into the souls of students, teachers, faculty and staff, alumni, and family. It was like a fire that burned within our hearts and simply could not be snuffed out. The lessons learned in the spirit of football will be valuable tools to apply in our daily lives, since responsibility, respect, dedication, skill, loyalty, and determination are virtues that are worthy in football as well as all walks of life. As this year came to a close, memories of that Friday night magic often came to mind, and whether you were a student, player, coach, or family member, again you yelled, cheered, enjoyed, relaxed, and let some of that good old Panther blood flow through your veins one more time.

Endless hours of practice and hard work have gone into the success of the cross country team at Pascagoula High School. Enduring the cold chills of winter and the hot humid coastal summer, the team trained continually. Each day the boys and girls team ran several miles and performed strenuous exercises to strengthen and build their bodies. These dedicated athletes gave their time, talents and energy to the achievement of their team and school. The memories made while participating on the Pascagoula High School cross country team are ones that will be timelessly treasured forever in the hearts and lives of these diligent athletes.

Basketball

Pleasures

Basketball is a sport that has broadened the lives of many people. It is a sport that demands dedication, endurance, discipline, and skill. Pascagoula High School takes pride in our basketball teams and both boys and girls teams have proven to be successful during the 1990-1991 season. Players have endured long hours of mental and physical training and, as a result gained values and memories that can be used daily and will be endlessly treasured throughout their lives. These players learned to love and respect others as well as themselves. Loyalty and dedication were visible in the lives of each player. Many of them started playing basketball at very young ages; the desire has grown and has since enabled them to strive for excellence. Pascagoula High School is proud of its basketball team. They have put forth the effort and enthusiasm needed to be called true "achievers".

"Mere longevity is a good thing for those who watch life from the side lines. For those who play the game, an hour may be a year, a single day's work an achievement for eternity."

It was pre season when the deadline for the yearbook came and the baseball team was warming up for their 1991 season. The year was off to a great start, tryouts were completed and excitement began to stir within the hearts of players, coaches, and fans. As they began to anticipate upcoming rivalry games, the enthusiasm grew greater. Once again the dugouts were filled with axious young men waiting for their chance to shine. And shine they did as they opened another glorious season for Pascagoula High School.

All this practice paid off when the team traveled to other area high schools to participate in some difficult matches. The team could not have been so successful without the leadership and coaching expertise of Coach Terry Leggett. This year's golf team had twelve outstanding players. The goals of the team were to win the district championship and finish the year in the top five of the state. To achieve the goals for this year, the team needed a lot of practice. They practiced four days a week at Hickory Hills Golf Club. They played many matches, with one at Pascagoula Country Club and one at Pascagoula Country Club. Practice alone can't make a winning team. Without the coach, Mr. Len Rushing, the team couldn't have won in the past years.In addition to Mr. Rushing, Sonny Grubbs has been the nucleus of the PHS Golf team for the past years. With this year's team the PHS golf team was outstanding.

Panthers Catch the Spirit

Homecoming week at PHS proved once again to be filled with excitement and memories that will never be forgotten. The week began with dress-up days sponsored by the Student Council and ended with the eagerly awaited football game.

The week was not only stressful for the selected maids, but it was also a very tiresome experience for the classes that actively participated in the class display competition. Although all of the classes put an abundant amount of effort into their display, the Senior display came out as the winner once again with their "You Ain't Nothin' But A Hound Dog" entry.

Although the Panthers had never lost to the Ocean Springs Greyhounds, they were still very cautious. The Panthers' behavior and their hours of preparation paid off in the end with a 16-8 victory.

There was a change in schedule which held the Homecoming ceremonies before the football game, but this did not put a damper on anyone's spirits.

Bonnie Stanton was announced as the 1990 Homecoming Queen just as the anticipation almost overwhelmed the awaiting maids.

All in all, Homecoming 1990 turned out to be one of the most exciting and fun-filled homecomings at PHS.

Quiz Bowl

Pleasures

This year was a very successful year for Quiz Bowl. On Tuesday and Thursday after school the members of Quiz Bowl gather for a meeting and practice for upcoming competitions. Competitions are held at different schools throughout the district and last a few hours. At these competitions the team competes against 14 other teams in 3 rounds. The team with three wins achieve going to the finals; however, if there are more than two winners, the two teams with the most points compete. During these competitions members are asked questions from "A to Z," and they usually answer them well.

Blood Drive

Pleasures

Ouch! The annual fall blood drive P.H.S. had this year seemed to be a nightmare to some students and yet not so bad to others. The student council with help from the local Red Cross chapter, sponsored the event.

Achieving a total of 225 pints of blood, it was considered another successful blood drive. The theme of the blood drive was entitled "Keep the Drive Alive." Without the help of the student council, teachers, Red Cross helpers, and especially the students of P.H.S., the 1990 fall blood drive would not have been a success.
by: Allee Anderson

Student Council member Gina Edwards assist Timmy Jackson while he gives blood.

Lisa Delaune releases a little yell while giving blood.

Jay Hudnall helps Ciji Stewart.

Nathan Cox comforts Kristie Achee while the nurse removes the needle.

Ryan Snowden doesn't seem to like needles. Ouch!

Jennifer Jones and Candice Walters help Michael Howell as he takes time to give blood.

ENDLESS

PLEASURES

School ended for many students May 23, and for graduating seniors their high school career ended May 27. Emotions stirred rapidly within the hearts of graduates. They were nervous about making the right decisions that would affect them the rest of their lives. Seniors were sad to leave friendships or loved ones behind at P.H.S. but excited to take on responsibilities. The P.H.S student body concluded the 1990-91 school year with fond memories that will always be cherished. Pascagoula High School's spirit will forever live in their hearts. This high school is a part of their lives, it provided them with a solid foundation in academics, sports, music, and social aspects, which will in time lead to a promising future for generations to come.

An Editor's Note. . .

The 1990-91 Panther Staff

As editor of the 1991 Panther, I would like to express my many thanks to the community, administration, teachers, and students. Your support to the publication of this yearbook will reflect some of your fondest pastimes. A yearbook is meant to provide you with many hours of "remembrances".

My special thanks I extend to the 1991 yearbook staff; thanks for creating and recreating over and over again, and also for the long, laboring hours put forth by each and everyone of you. To Mrs. Ladner, nothing can express the gratitude I have for working with such a hard working, caring, and artistic woman. She serves as a role model to those around her and is loved by many - most of all by me. Thank you, Mrs. Ladner very much for putting up with the hardships of building a great yearbook.

I would also like to thank Taylor Publishing Company and our representative, Ben Allen, for the help and support we have received throughout the year.

I hope this yearbook will remind you of "Endless Pleasures and Timeless Treasures" we have all experienced through the 1990-91 school year.
